Location

The property is situated just off Bridge Street, in the heart of Warrington Town Centre.

The property is within the main night time area of the Town and at the rear is the headquarters building of the Warrington arm of the University of Chester.

Warrington's main attribute is the surrounding road and rail networks, with two main line stations, serving north to south and east to west.

Description

We are delighted to offer for sale a most interesting development opportunity.

The property is situated within the heart of Warrington Town Centre and is currently available with full vacant possession and was previously used as offices.

There is a handy rear yard which opens directly on to the university, making it potentially ideal for student accommodation, subject to planning.

The building is arranged over 4 floors internally and comprises varying sized rooms throughout, as per the attached floor plans.

The property is of traditional brick and slate construction and has a most attractive double pitched frontage.
