Description

We are delighted to bring to the market for rent this ground floor retail until amongst a busy mixed use (leisure and fitness orientated) building with a large open car park at the front.

The unit comprises of a main retail space which leads into two storage sections located at the side of the unit. Given the layout of the unit, an established retailer can make great use of the space available with multiple storage spaces to house stock and an open plan large retail space at the front of the unit.

Being situated within a predominantly leisure and fitness business centre, there is a market ready to be tailored to the needs of those who use the unit which can in turn bring success and regular clientele to the business.

Alongside the unit, an office space just two doors down is available, which can be used as a hub for staff or extra storage if needed.

Location

Prominently located next to the Post Office and opposite Warrington VW, just off the main A57, Priestley Street.

The property adjoins Kia Motors. Lookers Honda is situated opposite the Priestley Street/Milner Street junction.

Priestley Street forms part of the Southern Expressway, the principal east-west cross town route, and carries high volumes of traffic.
